Introduction

Join us on a captivating adventure that will immerse you in the breath taking landscapes and teeming biodiversity of Nicaragua. Leaving behind the country's bustling capital, Managua, we head south and set our sights on exploring the enchanting Rio San Juan. This picturesque area serves as a sanctuary for a plethora of wildlife, including the enigmatic jaguar and majestic Harpy Eagle. From the quaint village of El Castillo we travel down the river by boat and canoe to reach the Indio Maiz Biological Reserve, a verdant oasis brimming with lush vegetation and distinctive flora and fauna. Returning to civilisation we enjoy the splendour of Granada, a city steeped in history, where vibrant churches adorned with vivid hues invite us to explore. We then embark on to the tranquil waters of Lake Nicaragua and its Islets, revealing a hidden world of basalt rock cloaked in rich foliage and a profusion of avian life, from elegant egrets to soaring kingfishers.

We delve deeper into Nicaragua's nature with a guided hike through the cloud-kissed Mombacho Volcano Reserve, with panoramic views of Lake Nicaragua before a special sunset visit to the neighbouring Masaya Volcano and its smouldering fiery crater. The mystical Ometepe Island is our next stop, guarded by twin volcanoes, where we climb the slopes of the towering Maderas Volcano, rewarded with awe-inspiring vistas and a serene crater lake.

Before our time in Nicaragua is up we have a unique camping experience in the tranquil sanctuary of La Makina Reserve, where we camp amidst tropical forests, meandering trails, and pristine waterfalls. Lastly, we venture to Leon, a city brimming with creative fervour, intellectual curiosity, and revolutionary spirit. From here we embark on an exhilarating hike up Cerro Negro Volcano, an ancient giant adorned in black sands.

Is this holiday for you?

This adventure is designed to explore the best of Nicaragua with a mix of adventure, cultural and interesting day walks. This is an active holiday where we will be on our feet most days whether exploring historic cities on walking tours, looking out for wildlife in unique nature reserves or being treated to spectacular vistas on a volcano hike.

We have a couple of longer walking days on these volcano hikes, particularly the 1394m Maderas Volcano, but otherwise the itinerary is not intended as a long or challenging walking holiday, with more time given to wildlife spotting and the history of the places visited.

We take to the water on a couple of boat trips and a short canoe journey on the Rio San Juan - no paddling experience is necessary for these flat and calm waters but for those less confident a support boat is available. The majority of the holiday is leisurely, with a number of short and longer walks and other activities.

DAY 2

Drive to San Carlos and the Rio San Juan.

After breakfast we drive to San Carlos, a small village situated on the south eastern shore of Lake Nicaragua and the beginning of the San Juan River, which flows east to the border with Costa Rica. From San Carlos we take a boat down the river for 2 hours to the village of El Castillo. The river and surrounding rainforest make up the Rio San Juan UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and is packed with unique and interesting wildlife; including mammals such as the Tapir and elusive Jaguar, birds such as the Harpy Eagle and Green Macaw, and freshwater life such as Manatees, freshwater sharks and the American Crocodile. Reaching El Castillo (the Castle), an impressive fortress dominates the town, strategically located on a sharp curve in the river, it was built by the Spanish to protect the affluent city of Granada from attacks by pirates. This vehicle-free town is made up of colourful wooden buildings which sit on stilts above the fast flowing river. We find our hotel on the narrow "main street" where we overnight.

Boat trip on the Rio San Juan; Canoe river journey; Hike in the Indio Maiz Biological Reserve.

Today starts early to explore the Indio Maiz Biological Reserve, the best time to see wildlife. We embark on a scenic boat trip down the Rio San Juan, arriving at one of the military ranger stations which have been set up to protect the reserve from poachers. From here, we board canoes and begin our adventure. As we paddle along the river we are surrounded by lush vegetation, dense forest and the relaxing sounds of nature. The calm waters of the river provide a smooth and enjoyable canoeing experience. After 1-2 hours of light canoeing we reach the start point for our walk into the heart of the Biological Reserve. Walking through the jungle we can expect to see Howler Monkeys, brightly coloured Poison Dart Frogs, a wide range of birdlife including Trogons, Manikins, Tanagers and if we are lucky Scarlet Macaws. The islets are made up of basalt rock covered in lush vegetation, rich in bird life, with plenty of egrets, comorants, ospreys, kingfishers and orpendulas. The age of these islands is unknown but it is believed they were created by a massive eruption of Mombacho Volcano that watches over the lake to the west.

Nature walks in Mombacho Volcano Reserve and Masaya Volcano National Park

Just South of Granada, Mombacho Volcano Reserve has some of the most beautiful cloud forest flora seen anywhere in Latin America with numerous flowers, bromeliads and orchids amongst its 800+ species. We arrive in the morning, where we will be transported by 4x4 to the ranger station from where we will start our nature walk. The Puma Trail hike takes you inside the cloud forest, as we ascend along the trail we are surrounded by a dense canopy of vegetation, alive with calls of tropical birds and the rustling of leaves. The air is cool and refreshing and with the aid of our naturalist guide we learn about the amazing biodiversity and, if weather permits, we will be treated to amazing views of Lake Nicaragua and its Islets. Our walk will take approximately 3 to 4 hours to complete and we will then have time to enjoy a typical lunch at the Casa Hacienda in the reserve. After lunch we continue onto Masaya Volcano National Park. Established in 1979 as the country's first national park, it offers a blend of nature, geological wonders, and rich history. Our visit begins at the informative Environment Interpretation Centre, where your guide introduces the volcano's history. You'll learn about its significance to indigenous peoples who once inhabited the area and the geological processes that led to the formation of the volcano. Whilst the main Santiago crater lava viewpoint is closed, the national park visit will include a guided walk on the "Comalito" trail. The trail winds through lush forests, and past active fumaroles, and offers opportunities to observe diverse flora and fauna. At the end of the trail, a scenic lookout provides panoramic views of Mombacho Volcano and Granada city in the background, with closer views of Masaya Lagoon. This volcanic lake, formed thousands of years ago by powerful eruptions and collapses of the caldera, holds cultural significance as a sacred site for the indigenous communities. Following our visit to the National Park we will transfer back to Granada where you are free to relax and venture out in the evening to try some of the local cuisine.

You should inform your leader on arrival of your allergy, and let them know where you keep your adrenaline pen.

VACCINATIONS

Currency

The unit of currency in Nicaragua is the Cordoba.

Preparing for your Holiday

It makes a lot of sense to spend some time before coming on an adventure holiday by getting some additional exercise. The fitter you are, the more enjoyable you will find the experience. Regular hiking in hill country is the best preparation but running, cycling and swimming are also good.

Climate

Nicaragua has a tropical climate with just two major seasons - dry and wet. The dry season occurs between December and June. The eastern part of Nicaragua receives more rain than the west while the coastal area experiences tropical storms and hurricanes between July and October. Temperatures vary more with elevation than the season. In the lowlands temperatures typically range between 22° C to 30° C, whereas the temperature in the mountains will be up to 10° C cooler. The hottest months are March, April and May. Generally the climate is warm and humid except in the central highlands. Mid-day while climbing on the exposed black ash of the volcanoes, the sun can be very fierce. However, rain and cloud and exceptionally, cooler weather can occur in the mountains and you need to be prepared for this as well as for the hot sun.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that before travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.
