Introduction

Spanning Western Europe from the Atlantic Coast to the Adriatic Sea, the full length of the epic E5 long-distance hiking trail begins at Pointe du Raz in France and ends in Venice; along the way crossing the magnificent Alps of Switzerland, Germany, Austria and Italy. On this one week self-guided holiday, you will hike the most spectacular (and indeed the most challenging) section of this classic route through three countries: starting in Oberstdorf in the southernmost tip of Germany, you will traverse majestic mountain ranges across Austria, and hike over the Tyrolean Alps to reach Merano in Italy.

This is a route that will immerse you into breath taking and changeable landscapes of dramatic valleys, high passes, roaring waterfalls and idyllic pastures. Surrounded by jagged peaks and snow-capped summits, you will truly feel at the heart of the Alpine landscape. Over the week you will be embraced by warm Alpine hospitality in family-run 3* & 4* hotels, and with daily luggage transfers taken care of, you can undertake this fantastic long-distance trek carrying just your day pack, and enjoy the trans-Alpine journey at your own pace.

Is this holiday for you?

This classic Alpine trekking holiday is ideal for active and experienced hikers who are looking for their next long-distance challenge on foot. This is a sustained trek in an Alpine environment, covering an average of 14km each day and with up to 1,490m ascent/descent in a day. You will be hiking for around 6 hours each day on average. You should have a high level of fitness, surefootedness and a good head for heights. Experience of hiking in mountainous terrain is a must for this trip. The route is well-signposted but a good knowledge of map reading would stand you in good stead, particularly in changeable conditions. Occasionally in the early season you may come across patches of late snow which will need careful navigation.

DAY 1

Arrive at Oberstdorf in the Bavarian Alps.

Arrive at your welcoming hotel in Oberstdorf, in the Allgau region of the Bavarian Alps. Positioned at the foot of the Nebelhorn (2,224m), this resort town is popular year round with outdoor enthusiasts, and little surprise too as the area boasts an extensive network of summer hiking trails and winter skiing opportunities. Depending on your time of arrival, enjoy a walk around the characterful village and its car free centre to stretch your legs and drink in the fresh Alpine air. OBERSTDORF FESTIVALS: Over the summer months, Oberstdorf hosts a number of festivals bringing an exciting buzz to the town. The Oberstdorf Photo Summit takes place in June; Culture in the Park in July; the Oberstdorf Summer of Music over July and August; and the Village Festival in August.

DAY 2

Cross the Mädelejoch pass (1,977m) and tackle the longest suspension bridge in Austria on your way to the Lechtal valley.

Fuelled up with a hearty breakfast and full of excitement this morning, you will strike out on the first stage of your E5 trek. A short bus journey takes you the start point of the trail, from where you make your way up the prettily wooded valley of the Trettach river - a good warm up for the legs before you start your committing ascent. From the tiny stone-built chapel of Maria am Knie, the impressive trail climbs through the Sperrbachtobel ravine to reach the Kemptner Hütte (1,846m), a route that calls for surefootedness and a good head for heights. The way is steep and rocky, and sometimes rather wet - difficult or slightly more exposed areas are fitted with steel safety cables to aid your ascent. Emerging from the head of the gorge and on reaching the welcoming mountain hut, you can take a refreshment break here in the knowledge that you only have a further short climb to tackle to reach the high point of the day, the Mädelejoch pass at 1,977m, also the German-Austrian border. Entering your second country of the week, sumptuous views accompany you on your descent into the Lechtal valley. The trail will take you across the spectacular suspension bridge of Holzgau - the longest and highest pedestrian suspension bridge in Austria at 200m in length and more than 100m above the valley floor - a truly memorable Alpine experience! Reaching the valley floor, make your way to your hotel where you can settle in for a good night's rest.

DAY 3

Walk through idyllic alpine pastures to reach St Anton.

Today's hike takes you off the beaten track and deep into the dairy pastures of the Lechtal Alps, with the gentle ringing of cowbells providing a musical backdrop to your day. From your hotel, a transfer by public bus takes you to the trailhead. The path undulates through wooded glades and peaceful meadows abundant with wild alpine flowers. Leaving the valley floor, you start your steady ascent to reach the high point of the day at Leutkircher Hütte (2,251m), positioned in the wide saddle between the imposing peaks of Hirschpleiskopf (2,549m) and Weißschrofenspitze (2,752m). From this vantage point, you gain a stunning vista over the rugged granite peaks of the surrounding ranges, and of the Arlberg valley below where you are headed. The trail then descends past the Putzenalpe hut to reach the Tyrolean town of St Anton am Arlberg and your home for the evening.

DAY 4

A stunning ridge hike from Venet to Wennis.

In the morning, take a scenic train journey (ticket included) along the valley to Zams, where you will pick up the cable car to reach Venet (2,212m). With most of the ascent taken care of, you can enjoy a stunning hike along the ridge with a fantastic 360 degree panorama of snow-capped mountains and jagged peaks. A steady climb takes you to the summits of Glanderspitze (2,512m) and Piller (2,480m); from here you might be able to make out the hut of Galflun Alm on your descent path. After a brief rest to savour the superb mountain views, drop down from the ridge and begin your descent, making your way through picture-postcard pretty meadows and forested trails. Soon enough you reach Wennis, where you might like to enjoy a refreshing beer before taking the bus to your accommodation further down the Pitztal valley.

DAY 5

Trek over the Pitztaler Jöchel (2,996m) to reach the pretty resort town of Sölden.

After breakfast, hop on a public bus to reach the trailhead. A gradual ascent takes you up the picturesque valley and past the thundering Pitze waterfall, becoming steeper to reach the Braunschweiger mountain hut. Here you might like to have a refreshment break ahead of hiking to the highest point of the trip: the rocky pass of Pitztaler Jöchel at 2,996m. Achieving the crux of your trek, take a moment here to catch your breath and drink in the awesome Alpine panorama. Your descent takes you past glacial lakes and the impressive slopes carved by the Rettenbach glacier. From the Gaislachkogel middle station, you can make your way either on foot to the resort town of Sölden, or end your hike here and take the bus or cable car into the valley and your home for the night.

DAY 6

Hike into Italy over the Timmelsjoch pass (2,474m) via an old smugglers' trail.

This is the day you will cross the border into Italy and your third country of the week. A short bus journey from Sölden takes you to the start point of your hike, where you will take the old smugglers' trail via the Timmelsjoch pass (2,474m) that crosses from Ötztal in Austria into Passeier in Italy. There is evidence to show that this ancient path had been in use as far back as 6300BC and served as a trade route over the centuries. Along the way you will pass the distinctive cube-shaped Smugglers landmark and the Timmelsjoch Pass Museum, both giving you an insight into the history of the High Alpine Road and the incredible endeavours of the pioneering Ötztaler Kraxenträger (basket bearers). From the pass, you descend into Italy's South Tyrol surrounded by magnificent Alpine scenery of flower meadows and towering rock faces. The gradient eases off by the time you reach Moos (Moso) in the Passeier valley, from where it's a gentle walk alongside the Passer river (Passirio in Italian) to your welcoming hotel in San Leonardo.

DAY 7

Take the panoramic high path from Riffelspitz to Hirzer and descend to Merano.

Today you will follow in the footsteps of freedom fighter Andreas Hofer, born in San Leonardo in Passiria, who was a key figure in the Tyrolean Rebellion of 1809 when South Tyroleans rose against Bavarian rule.

When the battle at Mt Isel was lost, Hofer fled to the Pfandler hut where he hid in the mountains before he was captured by French troops and subsequently executed. Setting off on foot from your hotel in the valley, you walk along forested trails to ascend the flank of the Riffspitz and past the Pfandler hut, gaining height to reach a breath taking trail hugging the mountain range at around an altitude of 2,000m. You can enjoy the wonderful far-reaching views as the high path undulates above the treeline to eventually reach the Hirzer hut (1,983m). You might like to enjoy a well-earned refreshment break here to savour your last moment high in the mountains, before the short hop to the cable car station to descend to Saltaus (Saltusio) in the valley. Once in the valley, make your way to your hotel in Merano by public bus; or if you prefer you can also walk the final section along the picturesque Passirio valley, passing lush vineyards and charming villages on your way to Merano. Settling in to your hotel, you can enjoy a celebratory meal at a restaurant of your choice this evening, and reflect on your achievements and highlights over the last week.

Food & Water

Water from the taps is perfectly drinkable on this holiday - please use this to fill your personal bottles for your daily activities. We do not encourage the purchase of single-use plastic bottles.

One of the great things about this trip is being able to delve into the subtle cultural influences in the local cuisine as you travel through the three countries of Germany, Austria and Italy. The abundance of Alpine pastures lends itself to dairy farming and cheese production - on this holiday we have even included a sample of the organic Lechweg cheese for you to enjoy. Utilising regional produce, you can expect the menu to contain plenty of meat and dairy, with hearty and filling fare involving tender roasted or braised meats served with dumplings, potatoes or noodles. There is also plenty of variety, from the German inspired delicacies of South Tyrol such as Speckknödel, Gröstl and Apfelstrudel, to typically Italian pasta dishes.

Accommodation

On this holiday you will stay in carefully selected 3* & 4* hotels, each chosen to showcase the wonderful traditional Alpine hospitality of the three countries you will walk through in just one week. All hotels offer comfortable double or twin rooms, some with Austrian style twin beds (two beds within one bed frame and separate bedding), varied breakfast buffets to fuel you each morning, and WiFi connectivity for sharing those stunning holiday snaps. Nestled in picturesque valleys and surrounded by idyllic mountain landscapes, each family-run establishment makes for a lovely space for you to rest and relax at the end of each day. Many also offer pool or wellness facilities - just the ticket to soothe your muscles after a good day of trekking.

It is possible to arrange additional nights accommodation if you would like to extend your stay in Oberstdorf or Merano. Please speak to one of our sales team for further details.

Severe Allergies

Please inform our KE Sales and support team of any severe allergies you may have before travel. We will always do our best to help but we are unable to guarantee an allergy free environment on our KE trips. Preparing for your Holiday

You should be aerobically fit and comfortable with walking 5-6 hours for consecutive days. Hill walking, with a good amount of ascent and descent, is the best training. Running, cycling and swimming are also good for developing cardio vascular fitness and stamina.

Climate

This trip is offered during the summer months, when you are most likely to experience good, stable weather with pleasant daytime temperatures between 11°C to 25°C on average. It can be somewhat cooler in the evenings. The weather is usually stable during the hiking season between July and September, but mountainous areas do generate their own weather systems and occasional rain and even stormy weather cannot be ruled out. You should be prepared for all eventualities!

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that before travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.
