Introduction

Think of the Peloponnese and conjure up famous Greek myths and legends; of gods that walked and warred on the earth, and the fables of Homer's Iliad and Odyssey. Named for the mythical King Pelops, this corner of Greece has seen the change of many civilisations and revolutions over the centuries, each leaving its imprint on the peninsula. When you arrive to the heart of the Arcadian mountains, you will discover idyllic scenes and wild nature, with tantalising glimpses into its intriguing history. Here, you can create your own tales of adventure and exploration of this mystical region.

Boasting breathtaking cliffs, dramatic canyons, meandering rivers and lush green mountains dotted with the terracotta roofs of traditional buildings of stone and wood, this is an area of exceptional beauty and it is little surprise that so many writers wax lyrical about this wonderful region. The Menalon Trail was awarded the status of "Leading Quality Trail" by the European Ramblers Association, the first certified trail in Greece, and makes for an inspiring journey. Walking the complete 75km trail on these revived ancient routes connecting communities, you will discover monasteries, caves, museums and more. Staying in traditional guesthouses in small and heart-achingly picturesque mountain villages, you will be sure to have a warm welcome in this lesser-known and tranquil part of Greece, and experience an unforgettable mini-odyssey of your own.

Is this holiday for you?

If you enjoy the challenge of a long-distance hike and like to get off the beaten track, this holiday is ideal for you. Over the week you will complete the 75km Menalon Trail, walking on average around 5-6 hours each day over 6 days, in hilly to mountainous areas. This trek takes place in remote locations where there are few hikers, on varied terrain that consists of a mix of forest trails, rocky footpaths that can be sometimes loose underfoot, dirt or hard-packed roads, and occasionally cobbled footpaths. The paths are well-kept and the route is well maintained, with good signposting and waymarkers to help you on your way. Due to the mountainous nature of the region, the route is always undulating, and there are some parts of the trail which consist of long sections of steps. In wet conditions, forest paths and rock tracks can become more tricky underfoot and extra care should be taken. There are some short sections where the hillside path is more narrow, which may feel challenging for those suffering from vertigo.

In each of the mountain villages, you will stay in charming traditional guesthouses where you can be sure of a warm welcome each night. All accommodations offer private rooms and facilities.

For safety considerations on the more remote mountain trails, this trip is suitable for groups of 2 or more travellers.

Self-Guided Families

Our Self-Guided Holidays are perfect for your next family holiday and are suitable for children of all ages.

Our partner hotels and accommodations are able to provide cots for young children, and some offer family rooms. We can also arrange hire of children's bikes and tag along bikes for most of our self-guided cycling trips and with trips such as Lake Constance and the Danube offering routes on designated cycle paths you can rest assured in keeping your family safe.

As a parent we trust that you know your own child's capabilities, so please read the itinerary details to ensure the distances covered each day are suitable for your family. If this is a first time walking or cycling holiday for your family, a centre-based trip is a fantastic option as it allows you to easily opt out of a day's walking if a day of building sand castles, swimming in the pool, or visiting museums is calling instead.

Please discuss this further with our Sales Team who will be happy to assist in picking the best trip for your family.

Meal Plan

This trip is on a bed and breakfast basis to allow you the most flexibility during your holiday.

Lunch provisions can be purchased at the villages before setting off; on some of the days you can also find restaurants open for lunch.

Your evening meal can be taken at a local restaurant in the village, or at the restaurant of your accommodation.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Food & Water

Water from the taps is perfectly drinkable on this holiday - please use this to fill your personal bottles for your daily activities. We do not encourage the purchase of single-use plastic bottles.

The Mediterranean diet widely found in Greece is known to be one of the healthiest in the world. You can expect plenty of fresh, local produce, varying with the seasons and full of flavour. Local tavernas will usually offer typical dishes such as Greek salads, grilled or oven-baked meat, roast vegetables or baked pulses, and various meze. Traditional mountain fare can be rustic but hearty, combining roasted meats with potatoes and vegetables. But there is much more nuance to each dish, led by the flavours of the herbs, the rich tomato sauce, or the piquant notes of quince or apples. Each restaurant will have its own specialty dish or perhaps a dish of the day, so do ask the kitchen and you might be pleasantly surprised!

Some of the best local produce to hail from Arcadia are apples, cherries, chestnuts, aubergines, olive oil and honey. Local wines produced in the PDO (protected designation of origin) of the Peloponnese to sample include the crisp white Mantinia, or the sweet red Mavrodaphne of Patras.

Accommodation

For this trip, we have handpicked a selection of welcoming guesthouses in the small villages we stop at along the Menalon Trail, offering a lovely space to relax after your day's walk, without a care in the world in the midst of the peace of the Arcadian mountains. These traditional stone and wood buildings have been converted into comfortable guesthouse accommodation, run by delightful hosts and each with its own charm, all waiting to welcome you with effusive traditional hospitality.

Each guesthouse has cosy communal spaces and pleasant outdoor areas, with wonderful views of the surroundings. In the cooler months, you can bask in the crackling warmth cast from the fireplaces; there is nothing quite like a wood fire for warming the body and soul.

All accommodation is arranged in double or twin rooms on a bed & breakfast basis; occasionally twin rooms are arranged with a double bed and a sofa bed. Each morning you can tuck into hearty breakfasts to fuel you for your walk - alongside homemade Greek specialties and pastries, you can also find a buffet spread typically with breads, cooked meats, cheese, jam, eggs, fruit, yoghurt, along with tea, coffee and juice.

Accommodations are subject to availability and can change but any alternatives would be of a similar standard.

It is possible to arrange additional nights accommodation if you would like to extend your stay in this idyllic area. Please speak with one of our sales team for further details.

Additional Information

In some rural areas, you may encounter dogs. As a precaution, rental of a dog repellent device is included in your trip price. You will collect this from the Menalon Trail office in Stemnitsa, and return it at the end of your trip at the final hotel in Lagkadia.

Baggage Allowance

Your main luggage will be transferred between each of your guesthouses while you are out on your hike. We ask that you please ensure your luggage is limited to one piece under 20kg per person, and that your luggage is ready for collection each morning. You will also need a daypack to carry your daily essentials with you.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided walking holiday is that you decide the pace however, getting some additional exercise before coming on an active holiday makes a lot of sense. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable your walks will be. You should be aerobically fit and comfortable with walking 5 to 6 hours for consecutive days in hilly and mountainous terrain.

Climate

The optimum time to do this walking holiday is in the spring and autumn months. The region commonly experiences snowfall during the winter months.

In the early spring and the late autumn, the temperature in this mountainous region can feel fresh and cool, with average daytime highs of up to 12 C. Evenings will be chilly, with the mercury as low as 4 C, but the accommodations all have cosy fires to keep toasty.

Temperatures start to warm up around May, this time of year as well as the months of September and October make for very pleasant conditions for walking, with average daytime highs of up to 21 C.

The summer months of July and August can feel too hot for walking, with daytime temperatures in the region of 30 C.

Mountainous regions such as this do generate their own micro climates and the weather can change quickly and unexpectedly. Precipitation can occur at any time of the year and you should always be prepared for all eventualities with waterproofs and warm layers, as well as your sunhat in your day pack.
