Introduction

The majestic Wildstrubel of the Swiss Alps rises to an altitude of 3,244m and straddles the cantons of Valais and Bern, showcasing the fascinating variety between these two faces of the massif. In the Valais, you will find lush Alpine meadows with the heady scent of wildflowers, pretty chalets in charming villages, along with productive vineyards in the Rhône Valley; while in the Bernese Oberland, there is a notable change of scenery to otherworldly landscapes of dramatic cliff faces, hanging waterfalls and glacial lakes - inspiration for JRR Tolkien's Middle-Earth.

On this one-week self-guided trekking tour of the Wildstrubel Massif, you will experience a breathtaking 100km journey through the Swiss Alps, and take in a section of the famous Via Alpina in the Bernese Oberland. As part of the challenge this week, you will tackle crossings of the Gemmi Pass (2,268m) and the Rawil Pass (2,429m) and hike the incredible Bise du Ro that will be sure to take your breath away.

Trail running aficionados will recognise the circumnavigation of this massif as part of the UTMB World Series, with the Wildstrubel races now becoming a mainstay in the trail running calendar, building athletes up to the pinnacle UTMB Mont-Blanc race.

Is this holiday for you?

This self-guided trip is perfect for you if you are an active walker keen to get your teeth into your next challenging Alpine circuit trek, with the flexibility to go at your own pace and with only your daypack to carry.

This is a sustained trek in an Alpine environment, covering an average distance of 20km per day over 5 days, with significant daily ascents and descents of 1,000m on average. You will be hiking around 7 hours each day. You must have a high level of fitness, surefootedness and a good head for heights, with experience of hiking in mountainous terrain. Signposting and waymarking in Switzerland is excellent; nevertheless a sound knowledge of map reading is highly recommended, particularly in changeable conditions. Occasionally in the early season you may come across patches of late snow which will need careful navigation.

The terrain is varied, including straightforward paths across meadows, forest trails, steep rocky tracks, and routes across slopes with loose moraine scree. There are sections on balcony paths with cable handrails set in the cliff wall - these routes can feel exposed which can be difficult for those suffering from vertigo.

For safety in the high mountains and on more remote trails, this trip is suitable for groups of 2 or more travellers.

Your Self-Guided Pack & Route Notes

Each self-guided holiday comes with comprehensive route notes and a map or pocket guidebook of the area you are exploring. The route notes contain information about the places you will visit and the local transport you might need, along with the detailed route notes for your daily walks or cycle rides. We even include some tips for the best places to stop for lunch.

You can expect to receive your Self-Guided Pack containing your route notes, a map or guidebook, and all your relevant documents, no later than 3 weeks before your holiday start-date. We will send your documents using a signed-for courier so that you can track your package and know that it is safely on its way to you. For bookings of more than 4 people we will send an additional Self-Guided Pack. If you do not need this additional pack please inform our Sales Team. Your pack will be sent to the lead booker, so please remind them to pack it before setting off.

Should your self-guided trip be part of a longer adventure requiring you to leave home more than three weeks before your holiday start-date, please inform our Sales Team so that we can make alternative delivery arrangements.

GPS Travel App

This holiday includes a GPS navigation app, which contains the routes for you to follow each day, as well as attractions, coffee stops and points of interest along the way. The app does not need to have Wi-Fi connection to work, you simply follow the instructions we provide you to download the app to your personal smartphone device before you leave home and you are ready to go.

While the travel app is running, your phone battery charge can be consumed faster than normal, so we strongly recommend that you pack a power bank with you just in case you require it.

Joining Arrangements & Transfers

The trip starts and ends in Crans-Montana. All of our self-guided holidays are sold on a Land Only basis allowing you the flexibility to choose the travel method which best suits you. The nearest airport for this trip is Geneva Airport, served by many departures from UK regional airports.

The Swiss Federal Railways network is extremely efficient and offers excellent connections all over the country (<https://www.sbb.ch/en>).

From Geneva Airport, you can take the very scenic train journey along the shore of Lake Geneva to Sierre/Siders, from where you can take the funicular or the Post Bus up to Crans-Montana. The entire journey usually takes under 3 hours.

It is also possible to travel flight-free from the UK by taking the Eurostar train to Paris Gare de Lyon where you can change to pick up TGV connections to Switzerland.

A Swiss Half-Fare Card is available to purchase which offers savings on the Swiss transport network. You might like to consider this particularly if you are planning an extended holiday in Switzerland. For more information visit the SBB website: <https://www.swissrailways.com/en/buy-swiss-half-fare-card>.

Meal Plan

This trip is on a bed and breakfast basis to allow you the most flexibility during your holiday.

You can purchase supplies for a picnic lunch from local shops, or you can pre-order a packed lunch from your accommodation the evening before. Alternatively, there are mountain huts along the route where you can enjoy the local delicacies. Not all huts can take card payments so having a supply of cash would be recommended. It would also be a good idea to bring a few additional trail bars and snacks with you; these can of course be purchased along the way however it is sometimes nice to have your favourite hill food with you.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Food & Water

Water from the taps is perfectly drinkable on this holiday - please use this to fill your personal bottles for your daily activities. We do not encourage the purchase of single-use plastic bottles.

Swiss food is a blend of French, German and Italian cuisine, which is hardly surprising given the country's location surrounded by all three countries. In particular, Switzerland is a cheese and chocolate lover's dream destination and is home to some of the world's finest cheese producers and chocolatiers. Yet there is much more to Swiss food than cheese and chocolate.

The great Swiss staple, the cheese fondue, is a dish all visitors must try and is almost a rite of passage. A mix of delicious melted Gruyere and other Swiss cheeses, white wine and herbs, it is the meal the Swiss Cheese Union claims 'creates a good mood' - unless you are first to drop your bread in the fondue that is! Tradition states that the poor soul who drops their bread in first, must foot the bill.

Although cheese fondue is delicious, it is certainly not the only yummy cheese dish on the menu here in the Valais. Whilst it is found throughout Switzerland, Raclette is particularly associated with the Valais, having originated here. A huge half of Raclette cheese is gently heated to melt the outside edge where the cheese has been cut, before the deliciously unctuous melted edge is scraped off one layer after another and is typically served with boiled potatoes, small pickled cornichons and silverskin onions - gorgeous, and even better with a glass of the local Fendant wine. For a typical dish of the Bernese Oberland, Berner Platte is a traditional celebratory dish, consisting of a large plate with a variety of sauerkraut, meats, buttery potatoes and vegetables.

Other national delights include Röstli (a fried grated-potato dish served with anything from eggs to apples) and Zürcher Geschnetzeltes (which translates as 'meat cut Zurich style' and consists of slices of veal cooked in a creamy mushroom sauce). Although traditional food is generally rich and hearty, you will find many lighter options too such as soups, salads and fresh fish from the region's lakes.

Of course, if you are keen to embrace the cake and coffee culture, you will find a range of delightful sweet treats, many containing the fresh fruits grown in Switzerland, and of course the renowned Käsekuchen (cheesecake). Go on, you've earned it!

Accommodation

On this one-week trekking holiday you will stay in carefully chosen chalet hotels and traditional Alpine guesthouses typically of 3-star standard, each selected for their welcoming hospitality and outstanding locations. Nestled in picturesque mountain resorts with a backdrop of magnificent landscapes, you can rest and rejuvenate at the end of your day's hike and enjoy the buzz of these Alpine hubs. Your stay each night will be on a bed & breakfast basis in comfortable double or twin rooms, typically with Austrian style twin beds (two beds within one bed frame, and separate bedding). Single rooms are available at a supplementary cost.

It is possible to arrange additional nights' accommodation at either end of your trip if you would like to extend your stay in Crans-Montana. Please speak with our Sales Team for further details.

Baggage Allowance

Your main luggage will be transferred between each of your hotels while you are out on your walk. We ask that you please ensure your luggage is limited to one piece under 20kg per person, and that your luggage is ready for collection each morning.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided walking holiday is that you decide the pace, however getting some additional exercise before going on an active holiday makes a lot of sense. After all, the fitter you are, the more enjoyable you will find the experience. You should be aerobically fit and comfortable with walking 7 hours in a day, for consecutive days. Hill walking, with a good amount of ascent and descent, is the best training. Running, cycling and swimming are also good for developing cardiovascular fitness and stamina.

Climate

Daytime temperatures at the elevations at which you will be hiking in this region tend to be quite warm, ranging between 10 and 25 degrees Centigrade. It can be cool in the evenings, dropping to as low as 5 degrees Centigrade, particularly at higher elevations. The weather is usually stable during the hiking season between July and September, however mountainous areas do generate their own weather systems and occasional rain and even stormy weather cannot be ruled out. You should be prepared for all eventualities!

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that before travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.
