Introduction

Discover the magnificent Alto Douro on this one-week self-guided walking holiday. The beauty of this rural landscape punctuated with sleepy villages is that, no matter what the season, the scenery provides the entertainment. Whether you experience the colourful blossoms and wild flowers which paint the hillsides in spring or locals coming together at harvest-time, you will be sure to fall in love with Portuguese rural life here in the Alto Douro. This is a place where life slows down and you can appreciate the simple things: good food, good wine and good company all within a beautiful UNESCO landscape.

Starting your trip with a private transfer to Porto you can enjoy a night in this culturally-rich coastal city before slowing things down with a scenic rail journey to Peso da Regua, the gateway to the Alto Douro. Your walks will take you through orchards and vineyards where you can sample the produce, and to sleepy villages where welcoming guesthouses await you with a friendly face and a pool that invites you for cooling dip. Hiking up to 17km a day at your own pace, you will have plenty of time to pause and appreciate the flora and fauna. Ending your trip in Pinhao on the northern banks of the Douro, a private transfer will take you back to Porto. You may opt to extend your stay here to enjoy the contrast of the hustle and bustle after your week of tranquillity among the vines and pastoral scenes of the Douro Valley.

Is this holiday for you?

If you love to get off the beaten track and enjoy great wines and great food, you are going to fall in love with the Douro. Away from the crowds where life slows down, you really get to embrace the culture and traditions of rural Portugal. Watch locals busy-away in the orchards and vineyards and enjoy the warm hospitality of family-run boutique guesthouses and inns. Walk up to 17km a day through tranquil landscapes, accompanied by birdsong and the rhythmic chirp of crickets, between villages and your accommodations. We have even included a wine tasting so you can appreciate the produce that has made the region so famous - the perfect way to unwind! This trip is suitable for groups of 2 or more travellers.

This includes the GPS-led routes for you to follow on your self-guided walking tours, as well as attractions, coffee stops and points of interest in the towns along the way. The app does not need to have Wi-Fi connection to work, you simply follow the instructions we provide you to download the app to your phone before you leave home and you are ready to go.

Each mobile comes with a different expected battery life so we suggest you pack a spare battery pack with you just in case you require it.

Self-Guided Families

Our Self-Guided Holidays are perfect for your next family holiday and are suitable for children of all ages.

Our partner hotels and accommodations are able to provide cots for young children, and some offer family rooms. We can also arrange hire of children's bikes and tag along bikes for most of our self-guided cycling trips and with trips such as Lake Constance and the Danube offering routes on designated cycle paths you can rest assured in keeping your family safe.

As a parent we trust that you know your own child's capabilities, so please read the itinerary details to ensure the distances covered each day are suitable for your family. If this is a first time walking or cycling holiday for your family, a centre-based trip is a fantastic option as it allows you to easily opt out of a day's walking if a day of building sand castles, swimming in the pool, or visiting museums is calling instead.

Please discuss this further with our Sales Team who will be happy to assist in picking the best trip for your family.

Joining Arrangements & Transfers

The trip starts at Porto Airport. All of our self-guided holidays are sold on a Land Only basis, allowing you the flexibility to choose the travel method that best suits you. Your driver will be waiting for you at Porto Airport arrivals hall to take you to your hotel in Porto. Porto Airport is well-connected with many departures from UK regional airports.

The trip ends in Pinhao, where you will be collected by your driver for your private transfer to Porto Airport. Alternatively, if you have booked additional nights in Porto at the end of your trip, you will be taken to your hotel.

If you have booked additional nights in Porto, at the end of your stay you can make your own way to Porto Airport using the Metro for approximately €3 per person. The journey takes around 30 minutes, with trains running approximately every 20 minutes. For more information please visit www.metroporto.pt.

Meal Plan

This trip is on a bed and breakfast basis to allow you the opportunity to enjoy dining in one of the local restaurants. We have also included 5 packed lunches to allow you to enjoy lunch with a view while out on your walks. Typically each packed lunch will include 1 or 2 sandwiches, 2 pieces of fruit, and 1 slice of cake or a snack, according to items available.

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Food & Water

Water from the taps is perfectly drinkable on this holiday - please use this to fill your personal bottles for your daily activities. We do not encourage the purchase of single-use plastic bottles.

The Portuguese are passionate about food. It is a reason for celebration, time with family and socialising with friends, and as is typical in much of Southern Europe, evening meals are enjoyed late into the night with a glass of wine. Portugal's national obsession is Bacalhau, a dried salted cod which features heavily on menus alongside other delicious seafood. After all, Portugal has almost 1,800km of coastline. However it is not all about seafood - Porto and the Douro Valley are known for their excellent wines and simple, delicious local cuisine. Local specialities include Caldo Verde ('green soup'), a cabbage soup containing chorizo. You will also find a variety of sausages and slow-cooked casseroles commonly offered - perfect after a day in the vineyards. Whilst in Porto, you must be sure to sample 'Francesinha'. Calorie-heavy yet extremely delicious, this glorified sandwich is made from toasted bread and assorted meats such as wet-cured ham, sausage and steak, the whole thing drowning in melted cheese, topped with a fried egg and served with a spicy tomato and beer sauce!

When it comes to drink, wine lovers will be in their element with both Port and Douro wines at their fingertips. Port dessert wines are of course a must when visiting this region. Ports can be ruby, tawny, white and rosé, and during the holiday there will be plenty of opportunities to sample the different varieties of this rich and delicious fortified wine. Table wines of the Alto Douro are also highly acclaimed throughout the world, particularly those produced from Chardonnay, Cabernet Sauvignon or Shiraz grapes.

Note that vegetarian options, although available in Northern Portugal, will be less varied.

Accommodation

On this trip you will stay in a selection of comfortable guesthouses or 3-star or 4-star hotels, each chosen for their warm hospitality and beautiful location. Each accommodation brings its own charm, whether it is a small family-run guesthouse with beautiful gardens where you can chill out with a good book, or a hotel with a swimming pool for cooling down after a day on your feet.

All our accommodations are booked on a bed and breakfast basis, in a twin or double room, and have Wi-Fi available. Many accommodations have restaurants - perfect for those days when you just want to relax in your hotel after a busy day exploring. Please note that in some rural locations the local restaurants are closed on Sundays so dinner in your hotel may be the only option on this day.

It is possible to arrange additional nights' accommodation if you wish to extend your time in Porto and enjoy all the buzz of this fabulous maritime city - please contact our Sales Team for more information.

Baggage Allowance

Your main luggage will be transferred between each of your hotels while you are out on your walk. We ask that you please ensure your main luggage is limited to one piece under 20kg per person and that your luggage is ready for collection in the morning on the day of each hotel change. Any additional pieces will incur an additional cost. You will also need a daypack to carry your daily essentials with you whilst you are out walking.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided walking holiday is that you decide the pace, however getting some additional exercise before going on an active holiday makes a lot of sense. After all, the fitter you are the more enjoyable your walks will be. You should be comfortable with walking approximately 15km per day with up to 700m of ascent for consecutive days.

Climate

The climate in this part of Portugal is mild. Whilst winter months tend to be damp, the summers are warm with a cooling breeze coming in off the Atlantic, making it very pleasant for walking. From April onwards the green vines begin to transform the hillsides of the Douro. The hottest months are July and August, with temperatures reaching up to 25 - 30 degrees Centigrade. In mid/late September the grape harvest is well underway, and by early October the hills start to take on a warm autumnal hue.

Travel Aware

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. The 'Travel Aware' website provides a single, authoritative source of advice for all kinds of travellers and we recommend that before travel, all KE clients visit the official UK Government website at travelaware.campaign.gov.uk and read the FCDO Travel Advice for their chosen destination. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.

Single Use Plastic

KE do not encourage the use of single use plastic items. We are ensuring that our agents all over the world are working together to reduce the problem and educate those around them. We are leading by example in our KE office by reducing our plastic use.
