Introduction

The archipelago of Cape Verde, or Cabo Verde, is a stunning collection of islands of varying scenery, situated in the wild Atlantic Ocean 385 miles off the west coast of Africa. On this self-guided walking holiday, you will visit the islands of Sao Vicente and Santo Antao where you will walk on some of the most incredible hiking trails in the mountains and on the coast, discover rural Cape Verdean life and marvel at the spectacular contrasts of the volcanic island landscape.

Beginning your holiday with two nights in the country's cultural centre of Mindelo, you can immerse yourself into the Creole way of life full of music and dancing, and enjoy an option of two hikes on this arid island. Journeying by ferry to Santo Antao, you will explore the high mountains, the fertile valleys and the stunning coastal regions of this verdant island with the option of a shorter walk or a longer walk available on most days. Your holiday culminates with two nights in the remote beach village of Tarrafal, free for you to enjoy as you wish; the perfect spot to relax and absorb the chilled out island vibes. Staying in a variety of comfortable hotels and small family-run guesthouses, you will experience a true taste of Creole hospitality and no doubt fall in love with incredible Cape Verde.

Is this holiday for you?

We have specially designed this holiday with the option of a shorter or a longer walk available on most days so you can choose the route to suit your preference each day. The shorter options on which the trip grade is based are usually around 3-4 hours of walking, while the optional longer hikes are around 5-6 hours of walking. Your walks will take you on trails that are typically ancient mule tracks of good condition. The nature of the terrain means that some of the trails are rugged, with sections of steep ascents and descents, but you can set your own pace on each day. Private transfers are provided to/from your walks as required by the itinerary, making your holiday experience as seamless as possible. You will have plenty of time to relax in each of the spectacular locations you will stay at. Plus, we have included two nights at the end of the trip at the remote beach village of Tarrafal, perfect for a spot of R&R after a wonderful week of walking. Tourism is still in its infancy at many of the places we visit, some accommodations and facilities can be more basic but this adds to the experience of discovering these special, off-the-beaten-track destinations.

Itinerary

Version: SGCV Walking Cape Verde - Santo Antao & Sao Vicente

DAY 1

Arrive to Sao Vicente island and settle into your hotel in Mindelo.

Your holiday begins the moment you step out of the airport on Sao Vicente island, where a private transfer will be waiting for you to take you to your hotel in the heart of Mindelo. Depending on your time of arrival, you may have time to explore the city to discover its characterful colonial architecture and colourful cobbled streets. The iconic pink Palacio do Povo, once a government building, today hosts cultural activities and exhibitions including a long-running dedication to the singer Cesaria Evora, for whom the airport on Sao Vicente is named and whose image is featured on the 2000 escudos note. The fortress-like Torre de Belem in the harbour is a nod to the famous 16th century landmark of the same name in Lisbon; it now houses the Museu do Mar, featuring exhibits on the history and culture of Cape Verde. The unassuming Mercado Municipal, a restored two-storey food market from 1784 where smiling vendors hawk their fresh produce, is a great place to experience the beating heart of a city. Vibrant vegetable and fish markets and the golden sands of Laginha beach add to Mindelo's tropical charm. If you arrive on a Sunday, the city will be asleep and the hustle and bustle will be found around the beach and in the villages of Sao Pedro, Salamansa, Calhau and Baia. SAO VICENTE CARNIVAL: The streets of Mindelo come alive each year for the Carnival, inspired by the carnivals of Brazil and blended with their shared history of Portuguese flavours. Celebrations begin the week leading up to Shrove Tuesday, with colourful parades of large floats and processions of costumed dancers and packed with events open to all, culminating in the vibrant main parade which starts in the morning and parties on late into the night.

Explore Mindelo and discover the southern coast of the island with an option of walks on Sao Vicente.

If you did not have the chance to explore the city the day before, you will have the opportunity to experience its charm this morning. Today you will be able to discover more of Sao Vicente island with your driver, travelling from the north of the island along the golden sand beach of Praia Grande, and through the agricultural oasis of the island interior at Madeiral. You have the option of two lengths of walks on your tour today, which offers you the opportunity to enjoy the beaches and coves you discover and maybe have a swim. Both walks start from the same point and takes you around the oasis of Santa Luzia de Terra. Facing the neighbouring island of the same name, this is a small valley of colourful rocks where a freshwater spring provides life to a collection of trees emerging from the barren ground. From this surprising haven of greenery, you walk toward the coast and past secluded bays to reach the popular surf spot of Boca de Lapa. Here a few caves provide some welcome shelter from the sun, before you continue your walk to Saragarca where your driver is waiting, to return you to the comfort of your base in Mindelo. 8km / 150m ascent / 170m descent / 3-4 hours walking If you wish to have a longer walk today, the second option is an extension of the route from Saragarca. You will continue your walk inland to discover the volcanic crater of Viana, before continuing your journey toward Calhau where you will meet your driver to return to Mindelo. 13km / 200m ascent / 220m descent / 5-6 hours walking

Take the ferry to Santo Antao and transfer to Ribeira das Patas to discover the rugged mountains on foot.

This morning you will take the ferry to Santo Antao island, the greenest of the Cape Verde islands and boasting numerous excellent hiking trails. The ferry crossing takes around 1 hour to Porto Novo, where you will be met on your arrival and be taken to Ribeira das Patas, in the western mountains of this verdant island. The landscape is spectacular and otherworldly, made up dramatic jagged peaks and bright green cultivated oases. You have an option of two walks here today. The first option takes you from the Alto Mira to weave between the "Dykes", famous basalt pinnacles unique to this valley. Crossing over the Forquinha pass, your path takes you through fields of sugar cane in Cha de Morte before reaching your lovely guesthouse accommodation for the night. 8km / 200m ascent / 400m descent / 3-4 hours walking The second walk option takes you along a spectacular balcony path with an astounding vista over the valley, down to Porto Novo and over the sea to Sao Vicente. From the trailhead you have a steady climb on the path clinging to the edge of the mountain, to reach the summit plateau from where you can enjoy views of Tope de Coroa, the highest peak on Santo Antao, and beyond. Your descent follows an incredible cobbled path zig zagging down the steep cliff to reach your guesthouse in Cha de Morte. 13km / 690m ascent / 950m descent / 5-6 hours walking

DAY 4

Option of two walks in the Alto Mira valley before returning to Cha de Morte.

Today you have the option of two walks to discover Alto Mira, a dramatic canyon descending from the mountains in a northerly direction to the sea. The upper part of the valley is accessible by road, while only footpaths connect the settlements and villages further down the valley. The landscape has been shaped by agriculture, formed of irrigated terraces carved into the steep sided slopes. A short transfer from your guesthouse will take you to the Alto Mira pass for your first hike option, which follows the trail through oases of cultivated land. Reaching the hamlet of Pau Bonito, you have a short climb to reach a crest before descending to the remote village of Faial. From the valley head you will have a vantage point over the Alto Mira as it carves its way to the expanse of the Atlantic Ocean. From Faial it is a steady climb back to the top of the valley to meet your driver and be transferred back to Cha de Morte for your second night in the cirque of Ribiera das Patas. 6km / 380m ascent / 720m descent / 3-4 hours walking Your second option today is to complete the full descent of the Alto Mira from valley head to the sea. You will be transferred via a spectacular road that ends at Cha d'Orguiero, where the trailhead at the top of the valley begins. The descent path follows the river from which the valley takes its name, passing through the secluded village of Dominguinhas before reaching the sea. Your driver will be waiting here to return you to your guesthouse in Cha de Morte for your second night. 11km / 200m ascent / 800m descent / 4-5 hours walking

Discover the lush green valley of Paul on the eastern coast of the island.

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast this morning and drink in your spectacular surroundings before you transfer to your next destination, Paul, to explore the lush valleys in the eastern region of Santo Antao. Paul is considered to be the greenest valley in the whole of the Cape Verde archipelago; you might liken it to the vegetable garden of the country. The vibrant landscape is a pleasing contrast to your first few days on Santo Antao. Here you can discover small paths connecting hamlets in the agricultural corrie of Cabo da Ribeira, where depending on the season produce such as coffee, oranges, guavas, vegetables and tubers are harvested, and rum distilled from the sugar cane grown here. Taking the coastal road to Paul, your driver will drop you off at the end of the road at the head of the Paul valley for an option of two walks in these fertile lands. The first option is a short loop at the heart of the corrie, taking you through cultivated fields and undulating terrain back to the road at Pe d'Eukalip, from where you can take the public bus to the coast and your seafront accommodation for the night. Alternatively if you prefer to finish your journey on foot, you can continue the leisurely descent through the valley to the coast and your accommodation for the night. 4km / 150m ascent / 350m descent / 2-3 hours walking Your second option takes the path descending through the verdant dell of Figueiral and its small communities, passing crops of fruit and vegetables and farmers working their fields. The steep mountains and jagged peaks make for a breathtaking backdrop to the beautiful green terraces you walk through. When you reach the road at Eito you can continue the rest of the short way on foot to reach your seaside accommodation for the night. 9km / 450m ascent / 850m descent / 4-5 hours

Hike the spectacular coastal path from Cruzinha to Ponta do Sol.

Wake to the sounds of the sea this morning. After breakfast, your driver will take you on a magnificent scenic journey, travelling through Ribeira Grande's mountain landscape and down the valley of Garca to reach the northern shore of Santo Antao and the coastal village of Cruzinha. From here you will walk the spectacular coastal path and marvel at the awesome views over the ocean to your left and the dramatically steep mountains to your right. The cobbled path takes you through the village of Fontainhas, famous for its colourful houses perched on the cliffs. The ingenuity of the terraces carved precipitously into the mountainside can't fail to take your breath away. Reaching Ponta do Sol, the northernmost town of Santo Antao and of the whole Cape Verde archipelago, this is one of the oldest settlements and used to be a flourishing port during the colonial era. Today it is still a fishing hub with many restaurants locally offering the freshest catch of the day. You can settle into your hotel here for the next two nights, explore the town and perhaps enjoy a cold beer or locally-distilled rum while you watch the sun set over the ocean.

Head inland to discover the Ribeira Grande valley with an option of walks.

Again you will have the option of a shorter walk or a longer walk today, to explore the Ribeira Grande region on foot which you will have driven through yesterday. This valley is made up of many fertile dells and is one of the main areas for the production of rum. The shorter walk option begins from Ribeirao, from where you will hike on a panoramic path taking you through the glades of Ribeirao and Cha de Pedras. The route travels through fields of sugar cane, the ubiquitous cultivated terraces and small Creole hamlets, and sometimes alongside the irrigation channels created to facilitate the area's harvest. Arriving at Joao Alfonso, your driver will be waiting to return you to Ponta do Sol. 5km / 300m ascent / 500m descent / 2-3 hours The longer walk option takes you on a loop around the gorge at Cha de Pedras, ascending on a cobbled path into the mountains to the secluded village of Aguada, positioned in a stunning corrie overlooking the deep canyon. Contouring around the interior rim, your route climbs to exit the basin and continue through a number of small farming hamlets, this time with the canyon to your left. Crossing through a few larger settlements, your track descends to Joao Alfonso from where you will be transferred back to your hotel in Ponta do Sol. 8km / 890m ascent / 890m descent / 5-6 hours

Short loop walk around Ribeira da Torre before transferring to the coast at Tarrafal.

Today you can enjoy a final short hike among the volcanic cliffs and canyons of the Ribeira Grande before you travel on to the west coast of the island. A short transfer this morning takes you to Ribeira da Torre from where you can enjoy a tranquil loop walk among the trails snaking through the rural landscape. Following the paths and irrigation canals, you will reach the village of small farming village of Rabo Curto, before descending through fields of sugar cane and yam back to meet your driver. Your journey will take the scenic road through Corda and the mountainous interior of the island, to reach Tarrafal de Monte Trigo on the west coast on Santo Antao where stunning sunsets are pretty much guaranteed! Tarrafal is a hidden gem where you can enjoy the solitude and peace of being in a remote fishing village untarnished by mass tourism, with the expanse of the ocean ahead of you and vertical cliffs behind. The name Tarrafal comes from the shrubby tamarisk tree known as "Tarrafe" in Cape Verde, which can survive on sea water and in harsh coastal conditions. Here the volcanic black sand beach is the longest stretch of beach in Santo Antao. Fisherman go about their business in their colourful boats and a relaxed pace of life feels like bliss. Settle into your family-run beachfront guesthouse, sip on a sundowner and bask in the glow of the magical sunset over the bay.

Self-Guided Families

Our partner hotels and accommodations are able to provide cots for young children, and some offer family rooms. We can also arrange hire of children's bikes and tag along bikes for most of our self-guided cycling trips and with trips such as Lake Constance and the Danube offering routes on designated cycle paths you can rest assured in keeping your family safe.

As a parent we trust that you know your own child's capabilities, so please read the itinerary details to ensure the distances covered each day are suitable for your family. Joining Arrangements & Transfers

The trip starts and ends at Mindelo. All of our self-guided holidays are sold on a Land Only basis allowing you the flexibility to choose the travel method which best suits you. The best airport for this trip is Sao Pedro Cesaria Evora International Airport on Sao Vicente island.

Meal Plan

All breakfasts, 6 lunches and 5 dinners are included on this holiday. Drinks (water and other drinks) are not included.

Food & Water

It is not recommended to drink untreated water from the taps. You should take purification tablets or a filter bottle (such as a Water-To-Go bottle) to treat your water. We do not encourage the purchasing of single use plastic bottles.

In Cape Verde the cuisine is of a West African origin with Portuguese influences. Ingredients used are fresh and tasty, and meals are often based on regional vegetables along with fish or meat. Being surrounded by water, fresh seafood features in many dishes and can include delicious meaty fish such as tuna, jack fish and the lesser known wahoo. Locally grown crops such as sweet potato, yams, cassava and beans make for a hearty meal, generously seasoned with garlic and herbs. The national dish of Cape Verde is known as Cachupa, a slow-cooked stew made with fish or meat, beans, corn and and vegetables, usually served with rice. Soup dishes such as Canjo are also popular, made with chicken, rice, onions and carrots.

Depending on the catch of the day, you might have the opportunity to try the bizarre-looking Percebes (gooseneck barnacles), also known as sea fingers for their appearance; the end is cracked off and the skin peeled to reveal the meat which has a texture akin to squid.

Fresh fruit including papaya, guava, mangoes, banana and coconuts make for a sweet dessert. For those with a sweet tooth, the Cape Verdean bol de cus-cus is a rich, dense cake made with cornmeal, sugar and cinnamon.

Grogue is a strong rum made from distilled sugar cane and is readily available on Santo Antao where the rum is produced. Mixed with condensed milk or molasses, the sweet cocktail of ponche (punch) is created.

Where included, picnic lunches are provided by the accommodation and typically consist of a pasta or rice salad, with tomatoes, corn and sometimes tuna, with local cheese and fruit. It would be a good idea to bring a Tupperware lunch box for your picnic lunch.

Accommodation

For this holiday we have selected a combination of comfortable hotels and family-run guesthouses in the small villages we stay at, all chosen for their amazing locations, magnificent mountain or sea views and warm welcome. Plus many have positive policies on sustainability and local impact.

In Mindelo you will usually stay at the Terra Lodge Hotel which generates its own power with solar panels and recycles its waste water. Terra Lodge also has a wonderful terrace overlooking the town and its surrounding mountains and out to the sea. There is a small swimming pool.

In Ribeira das Patas you usually stay in a beautiful converted farmhouse with a swimming pool, and a stunning backdrop of rugged mountains.

While at the coast in Paul and Ponta do Sol, your hotel is located on the seafront, just a stone's throw from the wild Atlantic Ocean.

At Tarrafal on the western side of Santo Antao, you stay in a small fishing village untouched by mass tourism, in a simple guesthouse right by the beach. A perfect spot to relax and soak up the laid back island life.

Accommodations can be subject to change depending on availability. Tourism is still in its infancy at many of the places we visit; accommodation and facilities can be more basic at some locations but this adds to the charm of discovering off-the-beaten-track destinations. Additionally your stay at these locations will directly benefit the local economy.

Please note that many places are not able to accept payment by credit card so having a supply of cash is a good idea.

Baggage Allowance

For this holiday you should take one piece of luggage, and a daypack for your daily essentials. Luggage with wheels is useful for this holiday. For international flights please check your baggage allowance with your airline.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided walking holiday is that you decide the pace however, getting some additional exercise before coming on an active holiday makes a lot of sense. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable your walks will be. You should be comfortable with walking 3 to 5 hours a day for consecutive days on steep and rugged paths.

Climate

Sao Vicente and Santo Antao has a hot desert climate, with the annual temperature on the coast averaging around 24 degrees C. August and September are the hottest months, with daytime highs reaching up to 33 degrees C.

Sao Vicente island experiences little rainfall, with September being the wettest month with an average of 5 days of precipitation. Santo Antao experiences higher levels of precipitation with the rainy season between August and December, accounting for its lush green landscapes. Even so the months of October, November and December only average around 2 days of rain each month.

Higher in the mountains the temperature will feel cooler, dropping as low as 11-15 degrees C.

The best season for hiking is from October to July, avoiding the hottest and wettest month of September.
