Introduction

Discover Las Alpujarras, nestled in the foothills of Spain's Sierra Nevada, one of the most stunning National Parks in Europe. Home to Mulhacen (3,479m), Spain's highest peak, this UNESCO biosphere reserve is a hub for outdoor enthusiasts and nature lovers alike. With hawks, kestrels, and golden eagles flying overhead, remember to pack your binoculars for this holiday. With the unique combination of a Mediterranean climate and higher altitudes, the area hosts an array of flora including fig, cherry, and almond trees. You are bound to fall in love with this lesser-known part of Andalucia.

On this self-guided walking holiday, you will first explore Granada with its explosion of culture and history, before retreating to the hills to explore the rural villages of Trevelez, Busquistar, and the three jewels of the Sierra Nevada - Pampaneira, Bubion, and Capileira. Beginning your holiday in the city of Granada with its magnificent Alhambra Palace, you will discover the area's fascinating history. Arab and Christian rule have both influenced the region's architecture and culture, not only in the city but also in the surrounding Moorish villages that, with their whitewashed houses with flat roofs and distinctive chimneys, are awaiting your discovery. Staying in traditional family run hotels and guesthouses, you will soon get to know the local way of life, where traditional crafts such as handmade ceramic tile production and Jarapa rug making are still going strong.

Is this holiday for you?

This trip is ideal if you love getting away from the crowds, putting on your walking shoes, and experiencing new cultures with your friends or family. If you love a bit of city sightseeing as well as retreating to the countryside to take the path less trodden, this self-guided walking holiday in Las Alpujarras is just what you are looking for. With walks of 4-5 hours long on tranquil well-marked paths and with average ascents of 500-600m, you will have the perfect opportunity to explore rural Spain, having time to explore the villages along your way. Routes are generally rocky under foot and trace the magnificent mountainsides on balcony paths, providing fantastic views into the valleys below for those with a head for heights.

The contrast of beginning your holiday in the busy city of Granada before heading out to the rural traditional-style hotels and guesthouses of Trevelez, Mecina Fondales and Pampaneira allows you to discover different sides of Spain away from the busy coast. An added advantage of being self-guided and spending two nights in each village is that if you would prefer to give your boots a rest and try your hand at one of the local crafts, you can.

Self-Guided Families

Our Self-Guided Holidays are perfect for your next family holiday and are suitable for children of all ages.

Our partner hotels and accommodations are able to provide cots for young children, and some offer family rooms. We can also arrange hire of children's bikes and tag along bikes for most of our self-guided cycling trips and with trips such as Lake Constance and the Danube offering routes on designated cycle paths you can rest assured in keeping your family safe.

As a parent we trust that you know your own child's capabilities, so please read the itinerary details to ensure the distances covered each day are suitable for your family. If this is a first time walking or cycling holiday for your family, a centre-based trip is a fantastic option as it allows you to easily opt out of a day's walking if a day of building sand castles, swimming in the pool, or visiting museums is calling instead.

Please discuss this further with our Sales Team who will be happy to assist in picking the best trip for your family.

Joining Arrangements & Transfers

Your trip starts at your hotel in Granada. All of our self-guided holidays are sold on a Land Only basis, allowing you the flexibility to choose the travel method that best suits you. The nearest airport is Granada Airport however Malaga Airport, with its many departures from UK regional airports, is often the best option when travelling from the UK.

If you are flying to Malaga Airport you can travel to Granada via public transport. The train takes approximately 2 hours with one change; the bus takes approximately 2-2.5 hours with most requiring just one change at Malaga Bus Station. It is possible to book your tickets in advance at www.alsa.es.

If you have booked a private transfer with us you will make your way to the arrivals hall where you will find your driver holding a sign showing your name.

We can also arrange additional nights' accommodation before or after your self-guided trip, or you may even wish to make this trip part of a bigger trip of your own, or pair it with one of our other holidays - just ask our Sales Team for details.

Meal Plan

This trip is on a bed and breakfast basis to allow you the most flexibility during your holiday.

Food & Water

Water from the taps is perfectly drinkable on this holiday - please use this to fill your personal bottles for your daily activities. We do not encourage the purchase of single-use plastic bottles.

The climate and altitude of Las Alpujarras make for a culinary experience that is very different from what is deemed typically Spanish. You won't find paella in abundance here - instead you can enjoy many hearty soups and stews, along with dishes such as 'chicken in almond sauce' and other delicacies flavoured with the region's Moorish history. Almonds, chestnuts, olives, peppers, figs and berries - all growing in abundance in the area - feature heavily in the local cuisine. The chocolate shop in Pampaneira is well worth a visit, to sample seasonal produce deliciously coated in sumptuous chocolate.

Breakfasts in the area tend to be continental, often featuring beautiful homemade jams and local honey accompanied by fresh bread and pastries. Lunches can be enjoyed in local cafes, or produce, sandwiches, and snacks can be bought from small grocers and bakeries. A trip to Las Alpujarras is not complete without a visit to one of the bodegas to sample the Serrano ham produced in the area - and why not wash it down with some organic wine from the region. Perfect after a day of walking!

Special Diets

Whilst we can cater for vegetarians, albeit sometimes with a more limited choice, we cannot always provide for special diets. Due to the nature of some of the trips that we operate and the countries in which we operate them, it can be very hard (and sometimes impossible) to cater for a wide range of dietary choices and you may have to supplement your meals with food/snacks from home. If you have specific dietary requirements please do speak to our sales team and they will be able to advise you whether or not we will be able to offer your specific choice. Please note that we are unable to provide separate menus and cannot accept liability for any problems arising from special dietary requirements or intolerances.

Accommodation

We have selected some lovely small traditional 2-star and 3-star hotels and guesthouses for this trip, to help immerse you in the enriching culture of this mountainous region of Spain. All have been chosen for their fantastic locations and warm hospitality, and all those in the mountains have seasonal swimming pools to help you cool off and relax after a busy day exploring during the warmer summer months.

In Granada, you will stay in a highly rated modern 3-star hotel in the heart of the historic city. Its location, at the meeting point of the Albayzin and Realejo neighbourhoods at the foot of the Alhambra hill and next to the cathedral, makes it easy to explore this amazing city. What's more, with restaurants and tapas bars in abundance, you will be spoilt for choice for dining out!

Please note: For departures during January and February, we have arranged for you to stay in a traditional, well-equipped apartment in Trevelez, close to the centre to town while our hoteliers enjoy a welcome break themselves.

Baggage Allowance

Your main luggage will be transferred between each of your hotels while you are out walking. We ask that you please ensure that each piece of your luggage is under 20KG and that your luggage is ready for collection in the morning on the day of each hotel change. You will also need a daypack to carry your daily essentials with you whilst you are walking.

Health & Vaccinations

Vaccinations

You should contact your doctor or travel clinic to check whether you require any specific vaccinations.

GHIC / Medical cover

UK residents should carry a free Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC). This entitles you to state provided medical treatment when you're visiting an EU country or Switzerland. This is not a substitute for medical travel insurance which is vital when travelling overseas.

Preparing for your Holiday

The advantage of a self-guided walking holiday is that you decide the pace however, getting some additional exercise before coming on an active holiday makes a lot of sense. The fitter you are, after all, the more enjoyable your walks will be. You should be comfortable with walking 4 to 5 hours for consecutive days and we recommend getting out hill walking, with some ascent and descent, before your holiday to help boost your fitness.

Climate

Las Alpujarras have an unusual combination of a Mediterranean climate with a high altitude, meaning that you'll find an unexpected mix of flora and fauna. The region benefits from warm sunny days almost every day in June through September - also the driest months - with temperatures in July and August reaching up to 30 degrees centigrade. However, the evenings can cool dramatically to a chilly 8 degrees centigrade even in the summer months, so remember your jumper. Winters are much cooler, with snow on the mountain tops and daily temperatures of up to 20 degrees centigrade and evening temperatures down to freezing point. Layers are handy at all times of the year, including waterproofs just in case.

As a reputable tour operator, KE supports the British Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office's 'Travel Aware' campaign to enable British citizens to prepare for their journeys overseas. North Americans can also check out the U.S. Department of State website: www.travel.state.gov for essential travel advice and tips.

KE treat the safety and security of all clients as the most important aspect of any trip we organise. We would not run any trip that we did not consider reasonably safe. Should the FCDO advise against travel for any reason, we will contact everyone booked to travel to discuss the situation. We receive regular updates directly from the FCDO and are in constant touch with our contacts on the ground. If you have any questions about government travel advice, please call our office.
